Vs.

Case No.

Defendants.

NOTICE OF REMOVAL

In support thereof, Defendant States:

1. The Sovereign has been named as a defendant in this action which was commenced in the Hendricks Circuit Court, by the filling of the Plaintiff's Complaint to Foreclose Mortgage, which is attached hereto as exhibit A".
2. The Plaintiff's action appears to be an action to foreclose on a lien upon the defendants real estate and personal property. The Sovereign has an interest in the real estate that is the subject of the Plaintiff's foreclosure action. As the result of the Sovereign' interest in the property of Defendant, issues of federal law and of sovereign immunity arise in this action.

3. As an action to foreclose liens and/ or mortgages on property in which a sovereign holds an interest, this action is removable to a district court pursuant to the provisions of 28 United States Code, Section 1444.
4. Copies of all pleadings and process served upon this defendant in this cause are attached as Exhibit A.
5. This notice is filed as an appeal of the pleadings.

WHEREFORE, the Defendant, A Sovereign, Prays that this action be removed to federal district court.

Respectfully Submitted,

Thomas W. Smith Sr.
